BINGO

How to play

1. Choose how much you're going to charge people to play. This should be the same for everyone - we suggest a £2 participation fee. Participants can play multiple rounds, but their total spend should not exceed £8.

2. Print each player a bingo card (or 2), making sure that everyone playing has a different card.

3. Use a random number generator to choose numbers from 1 to 75, or if you're really getting into the spirit of things, number some ping pong balls or pieces of paper.

4. Let everyone know to shout "bingo" if they're the first person to get a horizontal, vertical, and diagonal line, and finally a full house!

5. Draw the numbers and play- you can play just for fun or decide a small prize for each line and full house.

Please remember - you should only use this game in person, at your Afternoon Tea event.
